A Darker Soul Darren Hobson

A darker soul uncovered and unleashed, some things are best not read due to the delicate and fragile nature of the subjects, forgotten memories, scratches and scars, a journey through childhood from nursery to high school, the torment of going to work for the first time, the obstacle course that is finding a girl and falling in love all of these ingredients make a deep, darker soul!

This indie poet opens the vault that hides his inner soul, he will show you exactly what he is feeling and thinking as well all the mysteries from the past revealed, after you have read this book you will understand totally why this poet has a dark soul.

Another stunning ride of poetry that only this poet can craft and form, the speed and familiar way of the verses makes this a great read and have you begging for more.
