Ieri, oggi, domani. La mia vita Sophia Loren

"Mi sento inquieta, non riesco a stare ferma, quindi vado nello studio. A fare cosa ancora non so. Fisso lo scaffale, sposto i libri, come se cercassi qualcosa, e sto quasi cominciando a innervosirmi, quando intravedo una scatola di legno scuro. E un tuffo al cuore. In un attimo, mi scorrono davanti agli occhi lettere, telegrammi, biglietti, fotografie". Sono parole di Sophia Loren, la nostra attrice più amata, che fino a oggi non si era mai raccontata in un libro. Ma è stato forse l'avvicinarsi di un compleanno importante, o la casualità di ritrovare una scatola di lettere e fotografie, che ora l'ha spinta a farlo. Così è nata questa autobiografia in cui si dipana la vita di una bambina magra e scura scura, una ragazza insicura ma tanto bella "da far resuscitare i morti", una giovane napoletana che in pochi anni conquista il mondo. Quella di Sophia Loren, più che una storia, sembra una favola, compresa di balli, grandi prove e principi azzurri. Eppure, dietro la star, sorride una donna timida e determinata, che ha sofferto tanto, ha lavorato moltissimo, ha amato con passione autentica, sempre tinta di ironia. E lei a riportarci alla sua Pozzuoli dilaniata dalla guerra, alla Cinecittà dei primi kolossal americani, alla Napoli in bianco e nero di De Sica. Ma ci porta anche dietro le quinte, dove batte il suo cuore di moglie, madre, nonna, intorno alla famiglia che, da sempre, considera il suo film migliore.
