It is great for Home Hospice Nurses, as a leave behind.

Her insight will touch you like few people ever have.

Mary Beth Willi, is an LPN, who found her calling in hospice care. She is a near death experience (NDE) survivor as well. Over the past 10 years, Mary Beth has gained tremendous insight into the process we all must take to get to the other side. She has quietly become 'famous' on 4 continents where her small booklet is used to help both the dying, and their loved ones, better understand the final journey to the other side.

Her expertise is like no other. Her message of 'Learning How To Let Go' crosses all faiths.

Mary Beth has answers that all of us wish to understand. She isn't a channeller, nor a psychic; she doesn't talk to the dead. Mary Beth is a coach, a counselor to individuals who are near death and their loved ones. She's learned how to help people come to grips with the 'Life Review' process, and help them move peacefully into the light that awaits us all.

Mary Beth's topic is immediately one which raises eyebrows, until you hear her speak. She is developing her next book with us and has documented over 50 incredible stories of patients who have 'passed over' in unique ways that will have you glued to her writings and teachings. Her workshops have stunned hospital staff and administrators into rethinking how hospitals relate to caring for patients who are near death.

Most importantly, her message to those of us among the living, are the easy adjustments we can all make in our lives, and the process of life review we all must go through whether it be sudden death, suicide, or simply passing away at home.

Mary Beth Willi is a salt of the earth, matter of fact, woman, with a husband of 30 years, and a mother to 6 children.
