Livy (Rayburn Park Book 1) Angela Conrad

Rayburn Park boxed set consistently in the Top 100 in the UK in two categories, both Books and Fiction: Romance, Historical Romance, Regency.

Livy is an 1816 regency historical romance, taking place in London and the countryside of Suffolk and Essex, England. Livy is the first of a series, Rayburn Park.

This book sparkles with witty conversations and heartbreaking romance.

Livy, Lady Olivia Rayburn is an artist who has sketched and dreamed of marrying her childhood sweetheart for eleven years. Sheltered, living on her viscount brother's palatial estate, Rayburn Park, she hopes for a future with Lord Nathan Wentworth.

Now on her twenty first birthday, beautiful and kind Livy overhears Lord Nathan tell her brother Sam that he will never offer for her. Nathan has other plans.

Driven by hurt, despair, and compassion, Livy goes into the park and meets another gentleman, the handsome Earl of Essex who needs a wife immediately, that day, and she says yes to his marriage proposal.

This starts the story of Lady Winston, the Countess of Essex, her loves, struggles, heartbreaks, and joys.

Livy's love story, her marriage to a rogue and her growth as a woman intermix with the saga of Rayburn Park, a thoroughbred racing park in Newmarket, and its four owners, all dashing, unmarried lords.

Reedited May, 2015, 3rd edition.
