Jan's life is ordinary and she likes it that way. She goes to her job, teaching children, and then home to her comfortable apartment. It may be the status quo, but that is just fine with her. Her generous curves haven't had the boys flocking to her, but she's happy being single.

When one of Jan's students is injured, the hospital visit brings her face to face with Dr. Keith, her father's best friend. Jan has known him forever, but their attraction explodes on this tense night. Find out what happens when the two of them discover their desire for each other, even if it might be a little taboo...
