Two Graves Michael J. Marsh

Centuries in the future, the spark of rebellion has caught on a planet far from Earth. After chafing under the rule of the autocratic dictators hundreds of light-years away, the colony Rigel has decided to go its own way. When Earth resists the colonists' drive for self-determination, the struggle turns bloody. After outlaw Jason Morris's bloody rampage through space comes to an abrupt end over Rigel, he finds himself lost and wounded on an unfamiliar world. Desperate for revenge against the man who murdered his allies, Morris joins the rebellion's charismatic leader Adelle in her struggle for freedom. Matters become complicated, however, when the man who Jason will do anything to kill becomes the point man in the government's attempt to suppress the revolt. Under pressure to set aside his desire for revenge to assist the rebels, Jason must make a horrible choice: doom a planet to slavery, or let the man who destroyed everything he ever cared about go free.
