Coley is an ex-Liberian Child Soldier who has done his best to forget his past and make a positive life for himself in the United States. All seems to be going fine until he meets Angelina. Their love is organic, their love is special; can only be explained by Godly intuition, you might say. However, the more their love for each other grows; their dark past seems to be surfacing. Will their love, ability to forgive and faith in God be enough to sustain their relationship once the evils of their past are revealed?
