The Other Side of the Bed V. Rochelle Richardson

Although life had presented challenges before, this traumatic experience was certainly the greatest challenge of their lives. Our hope is to help those that may have gone through similar challenges to overcome with victory. V. Rochelle Richardson was born in Detroit, Michigan. At a young age she experienced the death of both parents. But through the skillful and prayerful hands of her Grandmother, Aunt and others, she became a young lady sold out for Christ. She is a wife, mother, grandmother, Pastor of an impactful, thriving and growing church, a local and national TV personality, an organist and now an author. Her heart's desire is to help people fulfill their God-given assignment. She and her family reside in Winston Salem NC. This book is about a journey between a husband and a wife who have been married for over 35 years. This book will captivate your heart and soul and you will come away knowing God can see you through life's toughest moments. Enjoy the journey of The Other Side of the Bed.
