For Katie Dunn, finding work as a maid at Marchand Hall is a new start in every way possible. She has a proper job now, and friends that treat her like family. No one in Bermuda knows about her shadowy past, and she plans to keep it that way.

The last thing she needs is to cross paths with one of those shadows—a man who shattered her trust.

Setting foot in Marchand Hall is both blessing and curse for Captain Rafe Sebastiano. In return for Lord Marchand's help in saving his family business, Rafe has agreed to marry his benefactor's daughter, whom he counts as a friend but does not love. That word is reserved for the biggest mistake he ever made. The woman he let slip through his fingers.

When Rafe and Katie inevitably come face to face, the pain of old wounds is as fresh as the fire that still burns between them. But if they aren't careful, they could repeat the mistakes of the past—and doom themselves to a future empty of love.

Warning: This book contains steamy situations, a catfight or two, a colorful madam, and the belief that happily ever after just might be possible.
