Los amores perdidos (Spanish Edition) Miguel de León

Todo lo que de verdad se hace por amor se hace en silencio.

Los amores perdidos* es una historia de amor, esperanza y libertad, una ventana a seis décadas de la historia de España, un elenco de personajes inolvidables que se funden en una novela que deja huella.

Los amores perdidos es la historia de los jóvenes Arturo Quíner y Alejandra Minéo, de su relación imposible y de lo que tuvieron que sacrificar por ella. Y de dos familias, los Quíner y los Bernal, enemigas eternas. Y es también la historia de un pueblo canario, El Terrero, de héroes anónimos y caciques ambiciosos, donde las pasiones son arrebatadas, los secretos se desvelan entre susurros y las venganzas se cobran con sangre.

Los amores perdidos es el poderío de Dolores Bernal, la matriarca despótica que controla el pueblo con mano de hierro; la bondad de Alfonso Santos, el honorable y firme médico que conoce el punto débil de todos sus vecinos; el valor de Rita Cortés, la chica rebelde y excesiva, que huye a la Península para encontrar algo muy diferente a lo que esperaba; o la tenacidad de Ismael Quíner, el noble enamorado que lo ofrecerá todo por la supervivencia de su estirpe.

Los amores perdidos es un épico y colosal tapiz tejido con estas y otras muchas historias, que afectarán a la pasión de Arturo y Alejandra a lo largo de los años y que les llevará del Terrero a Nueva York, del enamoramiento al desencanto, de la separación al reencuentro para finalmente enfrentarse a un destino incierto.
