Report of the Citizens' Commission on the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy Jim Gatewood
The Dallas County Assassination Review Board was formed as a result of a flood of information surfacing in Dallas that needed to be organized and made public. This mission brought to our table a group of dedicated Dallas County citizens, who began to distill and scrutinize the witnesses and their testimony that were previously ignored or censored from the Warren Commission Report. It is important to note that no member of the Dallas County Assassination Review Board was considered if that person was on or had been on the pay roll or associated with the CIA, FBI, local law enforcement, news media, or any bureaucratic entity with a self-serving interest. Perhaps the most sensational facts were made public in August of 1992 when Charles Giancana, brother of Sam Giancana, the Italian Mafia Chieftain told the story of how his brother was set up and double crossed by the treacherous Joe Kennedy, head of the Irish Mafia. The murder of JFK on the streets of Dallas was the culmination of Gang Warfare, the Irish Mafia versus the Italian Mafia.
