The central theme surrounds hope and the dance we all do around it. The title is quite a play on words. A refrain is also commonly known as a chorus. At the core of all of us is a hope. Of something. Yet at the same time it can be difficult to hold out for any hope at all. And that is the time we refrain from hope entirely. This book walks through that cycle. In biting and, at times, painful terms. Every word and phrase has a purpose. There is a depth available to the most adventurous of avid readers.
