How Modern Society Invented UFO's Albert Ramos

It's been said by many that earth has been visited by space aliens for thousands of years. Yet such assertions are modern, which were made right after World War II when the Cold War began, and more importantly at the start of the Space Race between the U.S. and the former Soviet Union. Thus, can it be posited that this was a time of fear that evolved into a religious crises. Like myths of old, they develop to explain the times and culture when civilizations are trying to make sense of their world. Indeed, the 1950's brought a sense of impending doom, at a time of new cosmic awareness and the possibility of life in other planets. As the decades passed, the UFO myth changed as well. In the 1950's the aliens were blond and had blue eyes, while during the 1990's the aliens were bluish grey, with bulbous heads and very large eyes, abducting humans and experimenting with them in embarrassing medical ways. And yet, for the abductees such humiliating experiences were spiritually transcending. It was the anticipation of the new millennium. If you are sure that aliens are here, see why it is a myth. But if you are sure that they are not, see why such a myth exists.
