Learning to Read: The Great Debate Jeanne S. Chall

LEARNING TO READ: THE GREAT DEBATE has been acknowledged as one of the best overviews on the history of teaching children to read and designated a "classic" in the field of reading education. First published in 1965, an updated second edition published in 1983 brought readers up to date. The third edition now contains the original texts of both editions in their entirety, plus a new introduction by Dr. Chall that summarizes the reaction and research to the present day.
