"It's what would happen if the characters from Breaking Bad, the Sopranos, and Pulp Fiction went to law school..." The Regal Writers Blog

A story about Dale, a classic underachiever law student that shoots for the lime light legal career, but instead finds himself breaking the law to obtain the emptiness he once described as fame and glamour...or so he thought.

Dale becomes intrigued by the rebellious side of the legal profession, and soon falls in with Jamie, a fellow student who leads him down a path he never thought existed. It's a relationship that was doomed from the start. Wild escapades and tensions build between friends and lovers that not only questions the code of conduct from inside the law school, but exposes the seedy, criminal underbelly of the legal profession and the laws the U.S. of A. is built upon.

Dale comes to a crossroads when he needs to decide between picking a career of the self indulging sharks, lurking in the dark abyss of money driven corporate law firms, or fighting for those that don't have the means or latitude to defend themselves. Guess which one is more honorable...

Ric Lord's Murder The Law is a masterful thriller that mixes a motley cocktail of law students, professors, lawyers, judges, drugs, sex and violence - that keeps the pages turning fast - and the bodies falling faster. Influenced by his years in law and corporate America, Ric artistically blends reality with one's subconscious. Now get a frosty beverage, a comfortable chair and turn the ringer off as you won't be able to step away from this paperback thriller. It's the Paper Chase with a gun to your head.

'Nuff said. Now go read it.
