Charles Dickens: A Christmas Carol (Illustrated) (Annotated) C. Dickens

Charles Dickens was an English writer, novelist and essayist. The classic of the world literature. The Dickens' creations are referred to heights of realism, but in his novels he reflects sentimental and fabulous origins. Charles Dickens is considered the greatest writer of the Victorian era.

We are glad to introduce one of the greatest Christmas stories ever written -

'A Christmas Carol' by Charles Dickens! This novella tells us about Ebenezer Scrooge, a corrupted old man who cares about the only thing — his money! He despises people and doesn't comprehend the people's joy about Christmas and all the things that have to do with it. But Christmas is the time for miracles, you know... so our bitter old man is visited by ghosts. These visits turn him into a better man in the end.

This story has become a traditional element of the Christmas time in the Western World and it has been made into films and cartoons a great number of times, which included the standard variant of the story as well as the original directors' interpretations. We recommend it for you to read during Christmas time, when all the family is gathered by the fire-place.
