Gregg Bostic-Autobiography: Life as a Merchant Marine Gregg Bostic

I wrote Gregg Bostic-Autobiography based on my experiences as a Merchant Marine. I started sailing in an entry level position and worked my way to the top which was a Chief Engineer. I endured all of the hardships of being a sailor: having to live aboard ships and being away from home so much. Much of my time off during the winter was spent schooling to upgrade my positions on the ships. However, I was determined to make it to the top of my profession. Each step of the way of upgrading my positions resulted in a better pay grade, so this was added incentive to continue toward these upgrades. It was also very self satisfying to me personally to be getting the education in Marine Engineering that I was getting. I considered myself a very good Engineer on the ships and my evaluations from Chief Engineers that I worked for along the way reflected this fact.
