Curvy Women + Sexy Aliens = Smokin' Hot Romance

Christie looked at her new found love and couldn't help but wonder what her friends would think of him. His long tail would instinctively stomp up and down in the floor as it chased away flies and his breathing would get louder every time he looked up at her. She wondered how it would be like to make love to him when he was that in form and the knowing look that all of a sudden appeared on his fury face made her acknowledge the chills that would run up and down her spine. She had to get used to the mind reading ability that she would mostly have to voice all her comments even the nasty and sarcastic ones. He stretched his hand toward her and she moved closer to him swiftly and landed in her recent favorite position. She let her head rest on his fury chest and loved how hard his heart beat in his chest.

"This is crazy", she thought.

"I know and yet here we are", he replied as he ran his claws on her smooth face. She wanted to kiss him but his scaly mouth was not so appetizing. She let her head rest on his chest again and thought of nothing else after all nothing else really mattered.
