After that one day so many years ago, Calvin Black didn't think he'd ever see Sofie Bennett again. He's lived his life ever since doing anything he can to get her out of his system. But now that she's in New York City, and back in his life, he'll stop at nothing to make sure she knows the truth of what really happened when she ran out on him.

Sofie Bennett's world is sent into a free fall when Calvin Black comes crashing back into her life. She doesn't want anything to do with him, but she can't seem to stay away. She tells herself that she needs closure, and then she'll be able to move on. But what she really wants is that magical energy she feels when he's around.

But when Sofie shows up unexpectedly one night, she sends both of their worlds on a collision course that neither one of them are sure they'll survive...
