Second Chances Parker James

Twenty-one years old and Jake Trimble already made his choice. One last summer and it was off to the Navy for him. Born and raised in rural Georgia, before leaving behind everything he'd ever known there was one last thing he wanted to do, win a long-standing local truck race that he'd nearly won the year before. It was a simple matter of pride. Going about his daily business he hadn't a clue that those last few remaining days would change his life forever, throwing his world completely upside-down. What he hadn't counted on was Jessica; in love with her longer than he could even remember. How could he leave her now when she was suddenly the most important thing to him? A tale of love, family, friendship, and decisions. Rarely do second chances come along. In this story they do.
