This is a very special book for children! It is the fascinating story of how SILENT NIGHT, the most popular Christmas carol in the world, was created in 1818, in a small Austrian village… Oberndorf. Did you know that it was composed by an organist in his guitar… and that the lyrics were created by the priest of the old Saint Nicholas Church…? It is said that the old organ of the church was not working due to the fact that a family of mice had lodged themselves inside the organ, looking for shelter from the intense cold in December of that year. SILENT NIGHT is fully illustrated in color and it is written for children of all ages. We wish to share this beautiful Christmas story with all the children of the world that love to sing "Silent Night" every Christmas.
