Well, she was just 17...

Susan spent her life yearning for James, a dashing member of the most famous band of all time. A chance to go back to 1962 will either bind them together or tear her apart.

Susan is sent to the past in her 17-year-old body, leaving her present life and her husband behind. She meets James and is stunned when he is instantly drawn to her, returning feelings she's felt her entire life. They embark on a forbidden, stormy affair that Susan never anticipated and isn't certain she wants. She feels guilty, but she cannot resist.

Will James be the paragon Susan's always dreamed he would be? Or will she learn that sometimes when a dream comes true, it's not quite what you expected?
