Honor Among Thieves (Hope & Steel Book 1) J.M. Aucoin

France, March 1609. The French Wars of Religion are over, but forces still conspire against the crown...

Darion Delerue, former soldier turned highwayman, has only two things of value—the hope in his heart and the steel at his side. After a heist on a royal ambassador goes wrong, Darion is thrown into a political plot to undermine the crown, pitting his old life as an honorable soldier against his new life as a highwayman. His actions could send France back into civil war.

HONOR AMONG THIEVES is a gripping tale of daring sword-play and political intrigue, with superb historical detail of 17th Century France that'll have readers ready to draw their swords and fight for glory!
