Can the quiet bookstore owner land the playboy?

Alyssa Duncan's life revolves around books. If not for the fact the town's playboy Connor Phillips has a secret reading addiction, she most likely wouldn't be on his radar...or his friend. The two personalities just don't mesh...or do they? She gets a chance to find out when a book-reading bet leads to dinner. Alyssa experiences a wide a range of emotions. She's elated her beyond-friendship feelings seem returned, but his reputation precedes him. Is she just another gullible female in a string of women? As a relationship begins to develop with Connor, going past the limits of friendship, things grow muddled and complicated when an ex-boyfriend shows up in town and things aren't what they seem.

When the dust finally settles, will Alyssa find true love with someone or end up with just another friend?
