Sin: The Root of All Evil Raul Ries

Today's society has become accustomed to so many destructive sins. Pride, envy and anger are no longer looked at as sins meant to feed the flesh, but as behaviors we use to prove self-worth or importance. The Bible says the heart of man is deceitful and wicked, but through the empowering of the Holy Spirit there is a way to escape those behaviors. The Bible teaches us to die to our flesh and pick up the cross. The fruits we bear speak louder than words. When we practice pride, envy and anger, we are not drawing people closer to Christ, we are pushing them away. If we want to overcome these sins, we must give God room to change and work in our lives but allowing Him to teach us how to live with the love of Christ. Allow this book to speak to your heart, and draw you closer to Christ.
