On Daniel Defoe:

Daniel Defoe (1660 – 1731), born Daniel Foe, was an English trader, writer, journalist, pamphleteer, and spy, most famous for his novel Robinson Crusoe. Defoe is noted for being one of the earliest proponents of the novel, as he helped to popularise the form in Britain with others such as Samuel Richardson, and is among the founders of the English novel. He was a prolific and versatile writer, producing more than five hundred books, pamphlets, and journals on various topics, including politics, crime, religion, marriage, psychology, and the supernatural. He was also a pioneer of economic journalism.

Ruth Santiago:

As a student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or make summary for some book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
