A collection of poetry, survivor and caregiver testimonies, inspirational quotes, meditations, and short stories, this compilation is a contribution of inspirational writings from survivors, caregivers, poets, healers, and story-tellers.

Scientific study shows that a large percentage of healing takes place through spirituality and control of thoughts and emotions. This anthology was written to assist cancer patients and survivors in keeping positive thoughts, encouragement, and inspirational feelings during their trials of battling cancer. Reading this book-- which covers topics such as facing fear, encouragement, getting support and healing--will help current patients and patients who have overcome this disease. Be inspired to LIVE, grow your faith, and find deep healing by knowing yourself as Soul, rather than body.
