Take It To Heart: Sixty Meditations on God and His Word Christin Ditchfield

Read it, pray about it, and take it to heart!

If you're like many believers, your daily quiet time with God's Word is missing something. After spending some time reading and praying, you close your Bible, dash off to attend to your onemillion daily responsibilities-and the impact of God's truth is forced to take a backseat in your mind and heart.

To enrich your quiet time, spend your next sixty days with this collection of devotions. With each chapter you'll encounter stories that make you laugh, struggles you can relate to, and questions that make you think. These devotions can be read in a few minutes but will inspire thought and reflection that will stay with you throughout the day.

Christin Ditchfield's anecdotal style and depth of biblical knowledge make this an inviting, enriching collection for any believer. These daily messages steer you back into God's Word, urging you to read it, pray about it, and take it to heart.
