ICD-10-CM Injury, Poisoning, and other Encounters (S-Z) Introduction InstaCode

InstaCode's ICD-10-CM books are designed by coders - for coders. Unique features include: reduced descriptions, bolded highest-specificity codes, alerts, code-level guideline references, ICD9 code references and wide margins for notes - plus a large, easy-to-read font and the absence of distracting colors helps coders quickly find highest-specificity codes. These books were created for everyday use by coders, billers and practice managers. - The Tabular List includes shortened descriptions, bolded highest specificity codes, guideline references, ICD9 code references and alerts (gender, age, pregnancy, manifestation, etc.). The Alphabetical Index only includes entries related to the specialty. And unlike other ICD-10-CM books, InstaCode's books include a GEMs or code mapping section to help you quickly convert from ICD-9 to ICD-10-CM codes. Also included are Provider Documentation Guides to help providers understand the documentation changes needed for highest specificity coding in ICD-10-CM, the complete CDC/CMS Guidelines for coding in ICD-10-CM, Neoplasms index, Drug and Chemical Index, and an overview of the ICD-10-CM code set structure and specialty specific examples.
