The Survivor: A Full Story Summary!

The Survivor, book written by Vince Flynn and Kyle Mills, is a sequel book that follows Mitch Rapp series. This novel, as well as previous novels of this author, follows similar pattern of writing, considering the author's style, which includes: tension and action, wrapped up in one, political intrigues and connecting to the novel, especially with political intriguing part, the author puts musings on what seems to be right and what seems to be wrong.

Mitch Rapp, the novel's main character and protagonist of the series, is an elite agent of United States Central Intelligence Agency. Here in this novel, Mitch, together with his helpers, are trying to contain the damage done by a man named Joseph Rickman. Rickman was a very intelligent man and while working in Agency, he managed to uncover many secrets and while doing so, he planned to disseminate them, crumbling the effectiveness of the Agency itself in the process.

Together with Rickman's intentions, as the main 'problem' for the main character, Rapp will need to find the most efficient way to deal with this and with many more.

The Survivor is one nicely written multi-genre novel that deserves attention of people who are already introduced to the series, as well as of people who are maybe new to secret agent Mitch Rapp.
