Using the story of the Rich Young Ruler in Mark 10:17-27. This is a short story on how God feels about the Riches of this world. The story of the Rich Young Ruler was a personal illustration of what my Life was like growing up in a Rich Nation. I am writing this testimony in order to illustrate to the reader how I was challenged to leave my comfort zone and follow the leading of the Lord. I had to make a commitment to living a life of a missionary when I had the privilege of spending a short term mission's trip in Montego Bay Jamaica. It was there that God spoke to me about making that total surrender to Him. That was a turning point in my life and I have never looked back. I have followed the leading of the Lord since that day and it has been a life of blessings. Spiritual blessings a long with natural blessings.
